JOY, COE & CO., Publishers. Agents, Titusville, Pa. We are authorized to contract for advertising in this paper.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We publish no anonymous communications. When received, they are invariably thrown aside or destroyed.

Job Printing.—We are now prepared to do every description of book, card and job printing, on the shortest notice, and at reduced rates.

Capt. G. C. Cramer, formerly Superintendent of the Rochester Express printing establishment, (the best in Western New York) has taken charge of our mechanical department. We have largely increased our facilities for executing work, and can meet all demands in a prompt and satisfactory manner. Send in your orders.

THE President of the Dayton Bank of Ohio, has his pocket picked at Erie, on Tuesday, of $700.

FOR SALE.—Mr. C. J. Quinn, one of the proprietors of the Titusville Standard, offers for sale one-third interest in the "St. Nicholas." Mr. Quinn is about removing from Titusville and will dispose of his interest on that account.

The attention of those wishing to own stout horses for heavy draft work, or a pair of ponies that can get over the road in good style is called to the advertisement of friend Snyder of Pleasantville. Mr. Snyder will also sell a pair with a good saddle horse and accessories. Judging from the nature of the terms in town, we should think he would find many buyers for such property. The price of such horses is one of the most valuable for my to buy. Seven years old, well matched and broken" is the style of the business. If I can get it we should like to have a well broken pair of horses for sale, but they are worth more for work, than for the butcher.

LITERARY.—Miss Susan Dunn writes a column benefit to night and concludes her column with the impression of the "P. & J. & L." and Madame Vime, in the great confusion of the "P. & J. & L." Mr. Dunn appears as Mr. Culliver, and Mrs. Dunn in the lovely character of Barbara Hare, the true heroine of the drama. It will attract a large audience, and the confusion is feared.

THE LITERARY LUNCH.—This popular restaurant, under the management of Mr. Dunn, has been purchased by Mr. G. W. South and the firm of Dunn, South & Co. Mr. Dunn has been in connection with the United States Hotel. He is practically familiar with the new business in which he is engaged, and will prove a decided acquisition to the "Literary Lunch." He will give his personal attention to the management of its affairs, and the patrons of the place may rest assured that it will be conducted on the best metropolitan model.

HARTSHORN.—Some of our German fellow citizens are about to organize a lodge of the above name on Monday evening with the title of "Hartshorn." The Hartshorn is a secret order, in honor of the name of its founder and established for moral and benevolent objects. We learn from Mr. C. Dunn, who is a member of the Hartshorn, that the lodge will be organized in a room in a suitable room in the town.

—Since writing the above we are informed the lodge was organized last evening by the Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, Mr. George P. Hupp, and G. B. Jones, Knoll of Buffalo, N. Y.

THE ATLANTIC.—The new building in course of erection on Duane street, south side of Spring street, is rapidly nearing completion. The building is thirty feet high, one hundred and twenty feet deep and three stories high. It is designed as a hotel and restaurant to be conducted on the European plan. The dining hall will be of a capacity to contain three hundred tables (including four round tables, besides a lunch counter containing a special bill of fare. The second and third floors will be divided into large lounge rooms, and will accommodate one hundred and fifty guests. It is the enterprise of Captain Daniel Tracy, of the firm of Tracy, Barton & Co., on Diamond street. Mr. H. K. Kellie, formerly Superintendent of College Place Dining Rooms, New York City, is to have the general management of the "Atlantic," as a satisfactory guarantee that it will stand as a first class hotel.

THE PRISON, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE.—Mr. Albert D. Richardson's new book is the most interesting and thrilling narrative given to the American public on such a subject to Union prisoners. It portrays the personal experience of the author, who is a correspondent of the Tribune was thrown by the fortunes of war into the hands of the enemy, and imprisoned for twenty months in the barbed wire dungeons of the South, and at last miraculously effected his escape. He reveals the secrets of those prison houses, at Richmond, Salisbury and Andersonville, and graphically depicts the horrors to which he and his fellow captives were subjected during that interval. Many were starved or shot, others were beaten with cruel stripes, stripped naked and tortured to gratify the lusts of a brutality of their captors. The trial of Mr. Richardson in progress, leads individual interest to Mr. Richardson's volume, and the testimony he has given in his own observations. The book is destined to have a very extended circulation. The friends of those who have similarly suffered will read with momentary interest this complete and reliable, while to the general public it will confirm the ghastly record of these diabolical atrocities.

The publishers of the work are Messrs. Jones, Bros. & Co., N. E. corner of Sixth and Minor streets, Philadelphia. Agents are wanted to canvass for the book. Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and disinterested officers and soldiers, finding it a very profitable business.

ACCIDENT ON THE OIL CRACK RAILROAD.—A coal car was overturned near the long switch last evening, which prevented the express train from passing down the track to the depot, for about a couple of hours.

The passengers, tired of waiting for the removal of the obstruction, footed it to the depot.

Mr. Lockhart, of the Post Office, went up to the freight car and procured the mail, in order that they might be distributed last night, and that they might not suffer from the delay.

An Important Subject to every Citizen. Titusville, Sept. 12.

Editors Morning Herald.

As one interested in the growth and prosperity of Titusville, allow me to ask if our people are aware of what our enterprising neighbors are doing at this present writing, to build up their own communities at our expense, by all means the truth and to take this place to others. We are not alarmists. We simply state facts which are put to all who will take the same pains that the writer has to ascertain them. Let me inquire what is Titusville without oil? I am by this the transportation, shipping and contingent business which follows in its train.

This is a plain proposition which needs no argument. Titusville has been built up by the oil interest, and it is equally plain that it must go down without it.

Now, since Titusville has become the grand fountain head from which we derive our supplies, why should we stand idle and see a railroad built, and tubing laid to divert this product from Titusville?

It is an undisputed fact that nearly three and a half of a hundred, between Pithole City and Oil City, are already constructed, and ready for the laying of lines, and that it is confidently expected that the road will be in running order in less than six weeks. Two hundred men are now at work on the line, and two hundred more are to be added to the force next week.

Again, whether it be for the oil trade has sprung up a letter to the Tubing Company, who have already dug their trench for half the distance, and a portion of the pipe is already laid between the points named. About two hundred men are employed on this work, and the Company have contracted at Oil City for the erection of 6,000 barrels of tubing.

Again, still another tubing Company are trying to establish a line from Pithole to Millersburg.

Again, a plank road from Pithole to Shillito is under way, and promises though fully completed, to be completed much sooner than our first commenced in only six weeks later.

The latter road being five miles shorter than ours, must necessarily prove a formidable competitor, but no plank road can compete with the railroad.

Again, there is still another railroad contemplated, and is your informant is a student, the track already laid. This road in question is to connect Pithole with Lima on the P. & J. Road, thereby shortening the distance nearly seven miles in New York or Philadelphia when compared with the route through this point.

I will say nothing of roads in Ohio to Oil City, Pa., but I think I have thrown out facts enough to make our citizens and business men realize that the future of Titusville is in the hands of the people, and that it is high time that some public consultation and action was taken in the premises. Very respectfully,

OUR SINCERE FRIEND,

THE HURTLERY AT THE RAILROAD TICKET OFFICE.

We received, a few days since, the burglary committed at the Railroad Ticket Office in this place. The tickets were all for the Oil Creek road and undisturbed, because they were not stamped with the date and it will be impossible for the thieves to get a train to the one used in the office. Any tickets offered for sale outside of the office may lead to the detection of the burglar and the public are requested to notify the police authorities in case any are offered. It is found that tickets were in the possession of any one. There were 700 tickets, valued at $125. The money stolen was all in scrip, of the value of $1.50.

The precaution taken by Mr. George B. Lyons, the ticket agent, in not keeping in his office more than a small amount of money, some which all business men should adopt. Indeed all citizens should be doubly their vigilance, while our town is infested with criminals. It may be well to mention that the burglar left a poker in the ticket office. Any party who has noticed such an article, an call and identify it, which may lead to the trail of the criminal. It is a rusty piece of iron, flat about one inch wide, two feet long, and bent at the end.

Unfortunately the burglar had accomplices in waiting, to throw the watchmen off the scent, and to facilitate his depredations and escape. It is
